Amlan International Announces Distribution Relationship with Elanco in Brazil

CHICAGO - (July 18, 2011) – Amlan International, the manufacturer of Calibrin enterosorbents, today announced that it has signed a distribution agreement with Elanco Animal Health to distribute its products in Brazil.

Elanco Animal Health was founded in 1953 and is a global, innovation-driven company that develops and markets products to improve animal health and food-animal production in more than 75 countries. Elanco employs more than 2,300 people worldwide, with offices in more than 40 countries, and is a division of Eli Lilly and Company, a leading global pharmaceutical corporation. Elanco's mission is to help the food industry produce an abundant supply of safe, nutritious, affordable food through enhanced animal health and herd-management practices. Elanco is a trusted provider of high quality, safe and efficacious products for livestock. As Amlan's sole distributor in Brazil, Elanco will market, sell and support the growth of Calibrin and other products offered by Amlan International.

Vice President of Amlan International, Ron Cravens said, "We are very pleased with this agreement. Our new relationship with Elanco helps us broaden our market access to all customers in the swine, poultry and dairy production segment, and capitalize on Elanco's expertise and knowledge of disease management."

Amlan International has sold animal health products into the Brazilian livestock market for 12 years and currently sells Calibrin-A and Calibrin-Z enterosorbents for mycotoxins. Visit www.amlan.com to learn more.
